What is a Rubric?

- a tool to evaluate student performance on assignments and assessments
- a detailed description of the criteria that will be used to assess student work, along with specific levels of performance for each criterion.

Criteria	Excellent (4 points)	Good (3 points)	Satisfactory (2 points)	Poor (1 point)
Quality of Work	Exceeds expectations and shows exceptional effort	Meets expectations and shows good effort	Adequate effort but does not fully meet expectations	Does not meet expectations and shows minimal effort
Accuracy	Completely accurate with no errors	Generally accurate with minor errors	Contains some errors but overall acceptable	Contains significant errors and is not acceptable
Organization	Well-organized and easy to follow	Somewhat organized but could be improved	Poorly organized and difficult to follow	Unorganized and completely incoherent
Creativity	Highly original and creative	Shows some creativity and originality	Lacks originality and creativity	Not creative or original
Completeness	All components are complete and thoroughly addressed	Most components are complete but some are missing or inadequately addressed	Some components are missing or not fully addressed	Significant components are missing or not addressed at all

Why use Rubrics?

- Clarity and Consistency
- Improved Student Learning
- Effective Communication
- QM Specific Review Standard 3.3
 - "Specific and descriptive criteria are provided for the evaluation of learners' work, and their connection to the course grading policy is clearly explained."

Accessing your Canvas Rubrics

- Visit your canvas course and click on "Rubrics" in the navigation menu
- If you do not see Rubrics, you may need to activate it under your course settings
 - Visit your course settings at the bottom of your navigation menu
 - Then, click on the tab that says "Navigation" at the top
 - Scroll down until you see "Rubrics" and click on the vertical ellipsis icon
 - Click enable
 - Scroll down to the end of the page and click "Save"
 - You will now see "Rubrics" in your main course navigation menu

Creating a Rubric

- Once you are inside your rubrics page, click the "+ Add Rubric" icon at the top right of the page.
- Give your Rubric a proper title (e.g. 1231 SAN1000 Essay Rubric)
 - Proper naming conventions allow you to remember what semester and course the rubric was created in for reference in the future after course copies
- Begin editing the Criteria, Ratings, and Points for each Row by clicking the pencil icons
- You may add more ratings by clicking the blue "+" icon under the Ratings column.
- To create more rows, click "+ Criterion" at the bottom of the table.
- You may click the Range check box in the Criteria column to use point ranges
- Once you are happy with your rubric, you may click "Create Rubric" at the bottom

Title: 1231 SAN1000 Essay Rubric
Criteria	Ratings	Pts
Description of criterion Range <input type="checkbox"/>	5 pts Full Marks + 0 pts No Marks	5 pts
+ Criterion Find Outcome		Total Points: 5

Creating a Rubric

- Now refresh the page if necessary and you may now access your rubric by clicking the title
- You may make any changes to the rubric in the future here by clicking on the "Edit Rubric" button on the top right of the page
- Please note that Rubrics cannot be modified once they have been used in more than one place
 - Try your best to make your Rubric "future-proof" to avoid any problems later

Adding a Rubric to an Assignment

- Whether it's through your modules or your assignments page, find the assignment you wish to add a rubric to
- Click on the "+ Rubric" button that should appear at the end of the page
- Click on "Find a Rubric" located on the top-right of the table
- Now find the course you created your rubric in inside the first column, then select the rubric you wish to use for your assignment, then click the "Use This Rubric" button to add it to the assignment
- Now you may edit the rubric and its point value to match the assignment by clicking on the pencil icon
- By making changes to the rubric, it creates a new one inside the course with whatever changes you make
- Make sure to click the "Use this rubric of assignment grading" at the bottom
- Click the "Update Rubric" button
